(TITICACA,
Co. Ltd.)

Retail and Wholesale Sales of Clothing and Accessories

TITICACA deals directly with producers in countries around the world, such as Central and South America, with integrated in-house operations spanning planning, manufacture, and sale of original ethnic apparel and accessories. The company creates original products with a hand-crafted style designed to match market demand. TITICACA also strives to “bridge the world’s happiness” by undertaking various activities. For example, the company supports the transfer of traditional technologies and improving the skills of young people by allocating 5% of sales from the HAPPY TRADE COLLECTION, designed to protect the welfare of producers and connect cultures. TITICACA also promotes fair trade, which aims to improve the standard of living for producers and workers in developing countries and help them to be autonomous through the purchase of their materials and products at fair prices.

What Is Fairtrade?

Fairtrade is a system of trade that aims to improve the standard of living for producers and workers in developing countries through the purchase of their materials and products at fair prices. Producing products that are designated as “fairtrade” and allowing customers to purchase them leads to mutual prosperity for supplier countries.

The International Fairtrade Certification Mark

The International Fairtrade Certification Mark assures customers that international Fairtrade Standards set out by Fairtrade Labeling Organizations International are met at every stage in the value chain of a product, from production of its raw materials through to import and export, processing, manufacturing, and completion as a Fairtrade Certified Product.
